As I am unable to make satisfacory arrangements for the care of my tock this winter, I have decided to sell he same at auction on

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24 at 1:30 o'clock

The sale will be held at the Smith lock Farm, about 3 miles from Barre ity, as this location is more easily sached than my farm. Every animal till go to the highest bidder, even nough they bring no more than grade dees. Recently tested for tuberculoa federal veterinarian and will ild with a 60-day retest privilege canimals are kept in an accredited rd or in sanitary stables. There are 14 mature cows, 7 head peing under 5 years old; 3 yearling ing peifers, r bull calf sired by a 31-tb. n of King Segis Pontiac Alcartra; 1 wo animals are in advanced registry. milking as a 3-year-old 68% hs. er day and the other at 26 months 481/2 lbs., and making 20 and known at time of sale. 3.57 lbs. butter, respectively, in seven rs. Both these animals are due soon or the sale. A few extra heavy proers now fresh and milking from 40 lbs, per day; others to freshen on. This herd has been gotten toer with a great deal of care and pense, most of the cows having been sen from large herds. Not a heifer hat did not milk 40 lbs. or more at nilking about 45 lbs. per day. Send for descriptive circular or cataog. Come to the sale. Will be pleased o show this stock previous to the sale. nd we will be pleased to have inter sted parties see them milked.

You will find this a good, healthy lot cows, good size and the profitable ind. Whether you want a family cow to increase your herd, the better ind is the cheapest. Remember, it osts no more to keep a cow whose calf worth $100.00 or more than a scrub hat gives half the milk and drops a alf worth $5.00 or less.
